Correspondence

PLUMVILLE.

Mrs. Minerva Hughes and son Daniel returned to their home Wednesday after spending the winter with her son Charles.

The storm Sunday morning did very little damage in this vicinity. Dr. Outten's buggy was blown down a little hill, but fortunately it wasn't injured any.

Dr. G. W. Hook sold his house and lot to Mr. A. A. Jenkins. Mr. Jenkins will move to the residence about the first of March. Dr. Hook will remove to a residence near by.

As Mr. N. B. Rogers was returning from Maysville Wednesday in a covered spring wagon, just after he reached the top of the hill at Plumville his horse frightened at a piece of paper in the road and jumped across the pike, breaking the shaft band. Mr. Rogers, losing control of the horse, it ran until it reached home, running against a wire fence, upsetting the wagon and spilling the contents and Mr. Rogers out. The wagon had one wheel broken, the horse wasn't injured and Mr. Rogers escaped with a few bruises.

Mr. A. H. Thompson is on the sick list.

Rev. R. E. Moss arrived Saturday at Naples.

There was one addition to the Christian Church Sunday.

Mr. R. T. Watson has been appointed guardian of Alma, John B., and Russell Chandler.

Harry Schatzmann of Dayton lost his left hand by having it caught in a woodworking machine at a Cincinnati manufactory where he was employed.

J. A. Ross of Dover precinct captured one of the premiums at the Ripley Tobacco Fair. The tobacco was grown on his farm, which is for sale by John Duley.

Colonel Joseph F. Walton left yesterday for Lexington, Frankfort and Louisville in the interest of the Tobacco Fair. From the latter city he expects to secure the attendance of General Basil W. Duke.

Personal

Mr. John Case of the Case case was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Rouark Gibbons was visiting at Washington Monday.

Miss Belle Rosen is visiting Mrs. J. H. Jones of VanVost street, Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Simpson returned this morning to their home at Covington.

Mrs. Mary Case was called to Millersburg on account of the accident to her mother, Mrs. William Davis.

Mr. Timothy O'Connell returned to Lexington yesterday after spending a week with his parents at Lewisburg.

John Phillips, an old Sixteenth Kentucky Veteran, who was in the forefront at the bloody battle of Franklin thirty-nine years ago, was in the city Monday.

Miss Henrietta Davis of Market street will arrive home this evening after a three month's visit with relatives and friends in Portsmouth, O. and Charleston, W. Va.

EDWARD GLENN.

Mr. Edward Glenn, who left this city about three weeks ago with the view of locating in St. Louis, and who was assaulted by thugs as he stepped off the car in that city and beat up in such an atrocious manner and robbed of money, watch and jewels, died from the effects of the assault yesterday morning.

The particulars incident to the murder are not at hand. Many different stories are current, but facts are lacking to substantiate any of them.

The remains will arrive this afternoon on the 1:36 train and be taken to his late home in West Second street.

Mr. Glenn was about 42 years old, and was well liked by his acquaintances, who deeply sympathize with the widow and five children, thus bereft of a husband and father.

The funeral arrangements will be given later.

A Cure for Eczema.

My baby had Eczema so bad that its head was a solid mass of sores, and its hair all came out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any permanent good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Eczema is cured, the sores are gone and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy, and its hair is growing beautifully again. I cannot give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Frank Farmer, Bluff City, Ky. In buying Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

The Smith & Nixon Piano Co.

Offers the following facts for your consideration, based UPON THEIR EXPERIENCE SINCE 1884:

A large property left to your children may be by them frittered away or lost through misfortune. In accumulating this large property you will strain every nerve and sacrifice every pleasure. Returning to your home of an evening, tired and worn out with the day's trials, you thoughtfully realize that should your loved ones, through misfortune or extravagance, lose the results of your life's labor, your life struggle would indeed be wasted.

Why not give your family something that they cannot lose? Why not devote a part of your efforts to giving your children a musical education? Wealth may take wings, but the education remains. THE ONLY INSTRUMENT capable of expressing musical ideas in their entirety is the PIANO. A high-grade piano combines rhythm, as expressed by the drum, cymbals and other percussion instruments; with melody, as expressed by stringed instruments, and the combination effects a delicious harmony of melodious sounds.

Why not invest a part of your earnings in a good PIANO? Give your family a musical education, and besides the pleasure that you will derive from seeing your loved ones seated at a piano and hearing the sweet music you will have a good income, viz: If through misfortune their wealth takes wings they will always have a good income in the musical education that you was careful enough to give them.

COMBINE PLEASURE WITH WISDOM.
Music will certainly charm away dull care. To provide your family with a piano and musical education is certainly wise. The consolation of knowing that your loved ones need never suffer is certainly a relief.

The Smith & Nixon Piano Co. submits these thoughts and asks you to look at their superb Pianos at

John I. Winter & Co.'s Store,
Maysville, Ky.
